

You are receiving this issue of the WAR newsletter because you chose to join many of us in our quest to keep our city, county, state and country RED. We will keep you updated on events, volunteer needs and ongoing progress.

What's happening with WAR?

At our January meeting, Tracey Dean stepped down as Wimberley Area Republicans President and Ann McDorman was elected president to fill the unexpired term.

Walt Smith presented a very interesting and eye opening presentation and update on what's going on in Hays County. If you missed the meeting and get a chance to hear Walt speak, take advantage of it and you'll learn a lot about our county commissioners and how valuable they are to all of us.

Our new address is 14201 Ranch Rd 12, Suite 2, next to Blue Jug and PO Box # 1763. If we're not there when you need to drop something off, Laura Warlick at Blue Jug will be happy to help you or call me at 512-847-5162 and I'll make arrangements to meet you there.

As mentioned before, one of our major objectives this year will be supporting conservative candidates running for election and re-election to WISD School Board.

We are not aware of a Conservative who has filed to run for Wimberley City Council. If you or any Conservative you know would be interested in running for council, WAR would like to visit with you.

Meetings will be held at the VFW until further notice.

Membership dues were due by January 15. If you have not paid yours, please consider doing so at our February 7th meeting or sending a check to our Post Office box. $25 single member/$35 a couple.

Protect our borders... you won't want to miss this one March 7th

Our speaker for the March meeting will be Wimberley resident and brother to Judge Andy Cable, Jaeson Jones. Jaeson is the Director/CEO of Omni Intelligence, a private company that strives to make the public and government agencies aware of the threats posed by unsecured borders and best practices to combat transnational crime.

A nationally recognized authority on the Mexican cartels, Jaeson lectures across the U.S., contracts with Breitbart's Cartel Chronicles team, is a regular guest on Fox Business News, and is on local and national radio programs.

He's is a retired Captain from the Texas Department of Public Safety's Intelligence and Counterterrorism Division, where he managed the daily operations for the Texas Rangers, Border Security Operations Center (BSOC); supervised Human Intelligence (HUMINT) operations in several nations and managed Intelligence lead operations for the longest 24/7 border operation in Texas history, Operation Secure Texas. He liaised daily with law enforcement and members of the intelligence community to collaborate with all disciplines of the homeland security enterprise.

Jaeson was responsible for providing timely information and analysis necessary to prevent and protect against all threats. This included providing analysis and Intelligence to the Texas Rangers, Criminal Investigations Division, Texas Highway Patrol, Aircraft Section, and State Emergency Management Division. Given his knowledge of Mexican cartel operations and threats involving border security, he frequently speaks to executives within all disciplines of homeland security throughout the nation. His focus is on best practices for combating transnational threats and the spread of violent criminal networks.

He has served as the Critical Incident Commander in the State Intelligence Center during both Fort Hood shootings, Austin IRS Echelon building attack, University of Texas active shooter incident, Odessa shooting involving four officers shot with over 1,200 rounds fired, Ranger Recon Mexican cartel shooting, Murder of a Bexar County Sergeant, and the Bastrop County wildfire disaster.

Jaeson Jones has led investigations targeting Mexican cartels leadership and built programs that collaborated closely with the U.S. intelligence community to help save lives in Mexico and throughout the United States. Having been impacted by what he has witnessed, he crosses the country speaking about what is happening but more importantly sharing proven solutions to fix the problems.

Dynamic duo February 7th

Mike Noriega

Elijah O'Neal

Mike Noriega and Elijah O'Neal will be the speakers for our February meeting.

From a young age, Mike has had a passion for our nation. In 2016, at the age of 16, he graduated high school. In 2017, he graduated Oak Brook College of Law and Governmental Policy with a paralegal certificate. At 18, he began, and is currently, working for the Texas House of Representative and is an ambassador for Patriot Academy a nation-wide organization that trains patriots to be champions of freedom both in their communities and in political offices.

Mike has also traveled across the nation educating Americans on the principles of freedom and giving them action steps to be leaders in restoring freedom in their communities, their states, and their nation.

Indwelled with a spirit patriotism and a love of our nation's history at a young age, Elijah has never taken the great American Experiment for granted. Upon learning of the sacrifice millions of patriots made so that he could be free, his passion towards public service was emboldened.

For four years Elijah served on the Maricopa County Juvenile Diversion Program, where he was tasked with investigating minor criminal matters and administering punitive measures. In 2019, he joined the Torch of Freedom Foundation where he traveled across the nation teaching about our Constitution and our nation's godly heritage with Rick Green. In addition to being a published author in the NRA Magazine, he now serves as a communications director in the Texas House of Representatives.
